My Own Private Island

Have you ever wondered how to buy your own private island? If you are considering this major purchase, there are many islands for sale in Canada.

Canada has the greatest number of private islands for sale of any country in the world. Because of the great number available, they are also the most affordable. Of course, affordable is a relative term. The price range for Canadian islands is anywhere from $19,000 to $6,000,000!

The islands are located almost everywhere in the country, off ocean shores and on secluded lakes. The islands vary enormously in size, ranging from 0.3 acres to 275 acres. There is so much variety in the private islands of Canada, it's a safe bet you will eventually find the island of your dreams. Who actually does buy these islands, you might ask? Many are purchased by wealthy residents of the United States, China, and Japan.
